Dear Mr. Webb:

You must now come forward and announce to me and to the world your participation in how you acquired my song, "By the time I ~~to~~ Get to Phoenix".

I am not interested in anything but the truth from you—and an apology.

Of course, you should have known better; you should have at least, claimed that the song was from a anonymous source. But, then, you were very young and probably barely knew what you were doing. Correct? Nevertheless, shame on you!

You can now stop living the lie.

In about two weeks, say, around the third of August—that is, if I don't hear from you (either directly, or indirectly)—I may start writing letters to various major newspapers around the nation—and the world.

I will post this letter on my website: ~~rogersmithartand~~ rogersmithartandopera.com. Do not hesitate to contact me. I am sincerely

Roger Smith
